The Danish thrash metal band Hell's Domain has released their self-titled debut album 23. September 2013 through the renowned Italian metal label Punishment 18 Records.

With musicians who have previously turned their folds in names like Hatesphere, Exmortem, Grope, Artillery and Koldborn, Hell's Domain are definitely not unfamiliar faces on the Danish metal scene and their debut album shows that Danish thrash metal definitely has its place in the world of metal anno 2013.

The album's 11 skull slamming tracks were produced by Tue Madsen (The Haunted, Sick of it All, Kataklysm, etc.) and should instantly appeal to fans of Testament, Metallica, Slayer and Exodus. In addition, a cover song - "Sneaking Disease", originally written and recorded by Crionic, one of the first Danish Thrash Metal bands back in the mid 1980s, were recorded.

The album artwork is made by renowned American artist Ed Repka who is also behind legendary artwork for international acts such as Megadeth, Death, Nuclear Assault, Vio-Lence, Massacre and many more.
